

For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than commons of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prevent an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance; they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

fords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing their root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

the eyes, whether the effect of nature weakness or of accident.

Fan-Sash Making.
METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke-street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufacture in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped, have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expense in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town.

Universal History Americanized; works were reduced to their quintessence."

PROSPECTUS.
ASIA.
The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvian—of the general deluge—of the resettlement of the Globe after that great event—of the primitive postdiluvian nations which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.
The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical States, and the Hottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.
The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations, which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.
The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present time.—
The second, of all parts dependent on Europe.—And the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.

It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes; of between four and five hundred pages each—to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Call-Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.
This work has been in contemplation nearly 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions, both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal History published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1789, when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.
The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expended or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in propo-tion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of its ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANHOPE SMITH, which brings it down to the close of the last war.

The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U.
States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither bookellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble —but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex: to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

SHERIDAN AND THE SCHOOL FOR SCANDAL.

The short specimen of Mr. Sheridan's witty eloquence which appeared in your paper a few days ago, gave rise to a conversation in a genteel circle, in which following, as is customary, the old beaten track, the whole weight of the eulogy bestowed upon that ingenious man's literary character was founded on his comedy of the School for Scandal. I begged leave to differ from them upon that point having been always of opinion that his dramatic works cannot maintain a competition with those other effusions of his genius, which elevated him to a stand in his country which nothing but matchless neglect and imprudence could have depressed below the first rank. His speeches on the impeachment of Hastings, his various conflicts with Mr. Pitt, are raised, by a rare union of wit, argument, and ludicrous analogy, whether displayed in extemporaneous effusions or in premeditated elaborate speeches, far above the others. As a poet, merely, I would rather be the author of the monody to the memory of Garrick than of some of the pieces for which he is most praised. To return, however, to the School for Scandal, I must offer it as my firm persuasion that it is not the production for which he will be the most indebted for the establishment of his posthumous fame. The plot is taken from an admirable novel written by his mother, called Sydney Biddulph. The chief characters and their sentiments are borrowed from Henry Fielding; Charles Surface being the Tom Jones and Joseph the Bliffl of the great novelist. The merit of originality therefore cannot be allowed to it in the extent necessary to a claim upon posterity for the fame it has hitherto conferred upon the author. But this is not the worst. The great and unanswerable argument against the School for Scandal, is its corrupt influence on life and morals.

A lady of high education in the intellectual world, soon after the appearance of that comedy, with a felicity peculiar to every opinion that fell from her, observed, "Mr. Sheridan is a fool if he pays a bill to one of the tradesmen who receive his comedy with such rapturous applause;—he ought to tell them, in the words of Charles, that 'for the life of him, he could never make his justice keep pace with his generosity;' and they could have no right to complain."

It cannot be denied that the author has, in a most masterly manner blown up and exposed the covered ways, the mines and countermines of hypocrisy, cant, selfish plausibility and cunning; but he has also put out of countenance the becoming attention to the duties of life, decent deportment, purity of manners and regularity of conduct. To borrow his own words, he has "damned sentiment, and brought into discredit and suspicion that appearance of morality and seriousness, which has been pronounced the soil for every virtue; and which too it is often used to disguise fraud and duplicity, is the nurse of religion, and in thousands of instances highly serviceable to the interests and convenience of society. It is a fond mistake of wits and droll dogs that notion, that ridicule is the test of truth:—He who long persists in laughing at rectitude, is not far from the practice of crime."

"Mr. Sheridan," says an elegant author, "has applied to morals a theory, which certain visionary writers, who fancied themselves philosophers, have applied to dress. Can it possibly be of any consequence, cried these superficial reasoners, 'so assiduously to cover the knees and necks of our females?'"

"By a species of logic which operates when argument is ineffectual, our author has obliged religion and morality to lower their pre-eminent and towering mein, to drop at to conceal their crest and cap of maintenance.—By the artillery of shrugs, and smiles, and the irresistible laugh, he has levelled the slight but useful barriers of opinion, which defended goodness, not only from attack, but from the fear and peril of it. He has torn down the thin, the sacred, the delicate but effectual veil which separated refined pleasure from sensuality; which, while it helped to protect our best and dearest joys from unhallowed hands, gave a thousand charms to the circumstances of love, friendship, ambition, pleasure, and intellectual toil."

"A man formed on the plan of Charles Surface, the hero of the school for scandal, would be a pleasant companion at table, a generous, open hearted dog, that character so fascinating to mankind—a friend to most persons, and no man's enemy but his own. In many trying situations of life he would be the hero of humanity—a christian in act, if not in faith—a demigod; but his composition would be of materials not calculated to form a useful member of society, a good husband, a good father, or a good friend."

"Mahogany, satin wood, ebony, and a variety of beautiful veneers for inlaying, furnish the cabinets and saloons of the curious and wealthy with numerous articles of elegance and splendor; but, for the daily and more necessary purposes of building and manufacture, deal, oak, ash, and elm afford more serviceable materials."

Chateaubriand, speaking of certain French ministers, and of others, elevated to high places under the present monarch, says, "What doth it cost these men to deny their masters? Nothing. Did they not desert Bonaparte himself? Within the space of a few months they alternately assumed, abandoned, and resumed, the white, and the tri-colored cockade. The arrival of a courier at once changed their hearts and the colour of their riband."

"They are in the right, however, for every time they violate the faith they have sworn, they obtain a new office. The age of an old deer is reckoned by the branches of his horns; these men's places may be counted by their oaths."

For this, and such like truth-telling freedom, the government of France erased the name of M. de Chateaubriand from the list of the king's privy council—confiscated his work—put seals on the presses of its printer; and even proceeded to shut up the shops of some booksellers to whose counters a few copies had been sent before the seizure.

"Why, Sir, they are on your nose!" "It was even so. My good uncle Samuel was hunting for his spectacles. We saw him go out to the barn, looking earnestly along the path; from thence he turned into the garden, his eye still fixed on the ground. Sometimes he would feel in his breeches pockets—and thrust his hands impatiently into those of his coat."

"Ods dickens!" cried the old gentleman, as he passed by me—"I have lost my spectacles!" "Why, sir, answered I, "they are upon your nose!" "Don't laugh, gentle reader, at my uncle Sam. One half of this wise world are just as simply hunting at a distance for that which is within their reach."

When I see a man with a snug farm—a good stock, and comfort smiling all around him—running to borrow money at Bank, to buy a plantation which he does not need, because it is well wooded, or adjoins him;—Tut! tut! thinks I, that man is looking abroad for his spectacles, when verily, they are upon his nose!"

When I see a farmer, possessed of a good plantation in the prolific plains of Delaware, or the rich valleys of Chester—in a country where the roads are good—markets convenient—and where the opportunities of moral, intellectual, and religious improvement every where abound—in village school-houses—public academies, and houses of religious worship: when I see a man, so situated, breaking up, and wandering to the western wilds in search of happiness—"Alas! poor man," I exclaim, "You search at a great distance for your spectacles, when they are directly on your nose!"

Should I ever see a great nation, rich in an abundant revenue, and yet free from oppressive taxes—its people rapidly prospering from the cultivation of a fruitful soil, and the widely extended range of a profitable commerce—her numerous population rapidly increasing, and holding land enough, unoccupied, for a hundred generations—should I ever see such a nation, in the full enjoyment of all the blessings of peace, pursuing a course of policy that tended to put every thing to hazard, by producing war—I should say to the statesmen who presided over her destinies—"Stop rash men!"—you are looking at a distance for those objects which can only be found at home in the councils of peace!"

ALEXANDRIA: MONDAY, MAY 18, 1816.

From the Baltimore Fed. Gaz. May 14.
Sentence of death was this day passed on Joseph Thompson Hare and John Alexander, lately convicted of robbing the mail. Lewis Hare was sentenced to ten years imprisonment.—The higher punishment which he had equally incurred, having been graciously remitted.

Extract of a letter from St. Mary's, dated May 2.

"I have just seen Mr. O'Keefe, from Augustine: he informs me that three Patriot brig captured, a few days since, two Spanish vessels bound to St. Augustine, one of which was an armed vessel, with $14,000 on board, for the payment of the troops at that place—said that all Americans are treated friendly."

New York, May 13.
LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the arrival this morning of the ship Amity, capt. Stanton, 42 days from Liverpool, we have received London papers to the 30th of March, the General Shipping and Commercial Lists to the 28th, and the London New Price Current to the 27th. Our papers are only one or two days later than were before received.

The Weekly Messenger of March 29th contains an extract of a letter from Valenciennes, which states in a positive manner, that the army of occupation is soon to quit France.—The contingents of the minor powers are, it is said, to march homewards in the month of May; the British and Russians remain until September; and the latter have agreed to transfer to France, by virtue of an arrangement not yet made public, the whole of the horses of their cavalry, artillery, &c. which saves effectually the risk and expense of carrying them round by sea.

The ships destined to the North Pole were to sail from Deptford on the 30th of March. "The officers and men," says the Messenger, "are to get two months' pay in advance. On board the I-abella, captain Ross, the Esquimaux Indian, brought to this country last year, has embarked, and returns to his native shores. In the event of the ships returning, they are to bring home each a cargo of blubber for the owners, in iron tanks, by which a saving to government on the hire of the vessels to nearly 10,000l. will be effected."

The Venetian manuscripts, lately purchased by the curators of the Bodleian Library, have been safely landed at Portsmouth.

The Three per Cents, left off yesterday, says the Englishman of March 29, at 78 1-4 for money, and 78 3-4 for the account. Several of the wealthy speculators, whose interested manoeuvres had occasioned the late depression, have begun to buy in again. Mr. Vansittart, it is said, will bring forward the budget in the course of next week. His financial plans for the year are still a profound secret, but it is supposed that a part of the sum wanted will be raised by the issue of stock debentures.

The Courier, Bowne, from New York, arrived at Liverpool, on the first of April.

Flour, on the 1st of April, was 55 a 56. American Stocks, London, March 28. Three per cents 78. New Six per cents 104 a 104 1-2. Seven per cents, 110 1-2 a 111. Hops, bags 24 a 26; pockets 24 1/2 a 28; Foreign (U. dried) 16 a 17 1/2.

London Markets, March 27.
Cotton.—The India Company have declared another sale of cottons for the 24th proximo; only 2700 bags are at present declared, but it is expected to be increased to 14000 bales previous to the day of sale. The prices of cotton are little varied since our last, except Bahias, which are scarce and may be quoted 1 2d per lb. higher, being sold at 2s 3-4d. The purchases of cotton since our last are limited to about 400 packages—100 Perennas 2s 1 1-2d. to 2s 1 3-4d; 150 Bahi as 2s 1-4d to 2s 3 4d; 80 Bengals 10 3 4d to 12 1-2d; 50 Surats 14 1-2d.

Irish Provisions.—The prices of butter are entirely nominal; the public sale yesterday went off at very low rates; bacon has declined 5s per cwt.

Oil.—There is a very considerable depression in the prices of Whale oil, and it is probable there will be a further decline on account of three ships having arrived from the southern fishery, with nearly 1000 tons oil. Greenland oil has given way 2s; South Sea 2l to 3l, and both heavy at the depression. Spermac oil may be quoted at a considerable decline.—Seal and Cod oil may also be purchased at prices much below what had been previously considered the market currency. Tobacco.—There is little variation in Tobacco since our last; the sales are inconsiderable.

Tallow.—The prices of tallow have improved on account of the small supply; yellow candle sells freely at 80s.—The town market is to day quoted 79s 6d. which is 2s. higher than last week.

Milledgeville, May 5.
LATEST FROM THE ARMY.

For the following late intelligence from our troops, we are indebted to Mr. Pearce, (one of the editors of the Augusta Chronicle) an officer of Colonel Milton's staff, who is direct from the army:

The army left St. Marks on the 9th ult. and on the 10th were joined by a detachment of mounted troops from Tennessee, under the command of colonels Dyer and Williamson, a small detachment of regulars under the command of captain Call, and 1000 warriors under McIntosh, who had been left at the Micksaukie to scour the country and gather the stock which was left by the Indians in their retreat. On the morning of the 12th McIntosh with a party of his warriors attacked a party of hostile Indians. The engagement continued about two hours with much spirit, when the hostiles retreated, leaving their women, children and property of all kinds to the mercy of the conquerors.—Sustaining a loss of 37 killed on the field, and two wounded, and a number of prisoners.—The number of Indians engaged was differently represented by different prisoners. McIntosh had three men killed and several wounded. Kinnard and Timponchee (or John) Barnett were conspicuous in this action; the latter evinced military talents which would have done credit to a greater man. These Indians belonged to McQueen's party, and were the same who massacred the crew of lieutenant Scott in the boats last fall, at the mouth of Flint river. The woman who was taken there, and many articles of soldiers' clothing, were found in their possession.

On the 17th the army took possession of Suwaney, after a skirmish of about fifteen minutes, in which three negroes were killed, and three taken prisoners.—About 2000 bushels of corn, some cattle, and some few articles of provisions, such as rice, potatoes; sugar, salt, &c. were found in the town, and at a store belonging to Arbuthnot, a few miles below. On the next day a scout was sent across the river for the purpose of pursuing the Indians, but they had got too far advanced to be overtaken. The scouts took some property, and found a small quantity of merchandise concealed in the swamp.

On the night of the 18th, two Englishmen who Arbuthnot had employed as clerks and agents, and two negroes, came from a schooner just arrived below from a piratical cruise, up to the town for provisions, &c. unconscious of our army being there. They were all taken by our centinels except one negro who made his escape. The canoe which they came in was secured, and at day light next morning a detachment was sent to take possession of the schooner, on board of which young Arbuthnot commanded. The result of the expedition was not known when our informant departed.

On the 20th, the Georgia troops commenced their march homeward. In the evening of the same day, McIntosh and the principal part of his warriors also commenced their return march, with directions to destroy Hopponie's town and all his warriors, and to take possession of all his property of every description, so as effectually to destroy him.

DESTRUCTION OF THE CHEW VILLAGE.

Mr. Pearce has politely favored us with the following account of the destruction of the Chew village.

"On the 28th we reached Jimmy's town, a part of the old Chew village; and here we were informed of one of the most infamous outrages that ever disgraced the human form. It would even give a darker shade to the blackest deeds of an Algerine pirate. On our near approach to the village, we saw a party of mounted warriors retiring very fast into the swamp, and sent on our pilot a head to inform them we were friends, and would not injure them. He did not succeed in overtaking them, but found another party at the landing who had come in for provisions. When we approached they appeared friendly, but very much alarmed. We enquired for provisions, having none among us, and were told that they had none. They informed us that their town had been attacked and destroyed; that their warriors were lying out, and that they had only come in to get something to eat. We were struck with astonishment at the fact; but could get no information of the cause, or the authors of this base transaction. All we could learn was, that a party of mounted men had entered their town with a white flag and fired on them, while the hand of friendship was extended to them; that they had killed old Howard with six other men, and three females, an old woman, a girl and a child; that they had burnt all their houses, plundered every thing they could lay their hands on, & made a precipitate retreat. Of the cause they were as ignorant as we were. They expressed no sentiment of hostility, but relied on the justice of our government for reparation, and seemed to think that it would be amicably settled, and here I hope government will not disappoint them. We informed them we were confident government could not have authorized the measure; and that the commanding general was entirely unapprised of it; that general Glassecock at the head of the Georgia militia, was in their neighborhood and would afford them protection; and that they might with safety call in their warriors, old men, women and children, which they did. On our arrival at Fort Early we were informed of the facts. A Mr. Wright who was elected in Savannah to command a company of militia from that place, which afterwards in consequence of his being sick and unable to command, elected the 1st lieutenant to command the company, who was regularly mustered into service as the captain of that company and is now in command of the company in the U. States service—he (Wright) came to Hartford, reported himself captain in the service, assumed the command of some cavalry and infantry ordered out for the protection of the frontier, obtained permission of the governor of this state to burn Phelmie's and Hopponie's towns, which general Jackson had passed near and permitted to stand, and with this command wished to immortalize his name, (in which I fear he has too fatally succeeded) went on, disregarding orders, permission and instructions—left Phelmie's town to his left on the river—stopped 10 miles short of Hopponie's, and commenced a most wanton and unprovoked attack on the old men, the women and children of a town, the friendship of whose inhabitants to the people of the United States had never been doubted since the revolution, and whose warriors, with the exception of a few who were out hunting, followed Jackson to the field to chastise the enemies of our country, who liberally shared in the fatigues and privations of the campaign, and were actually in the service of the United States when this band, more barbarous than the most savage Indians, were firing on their mothers, their wives, and their children, who were remaining at their homes secure in protection from the whites, and participating no solicitude only for the return of their sons, their husbands and their brothers, and anticipating the happiness which that event would bring with it; and while their old chief, whose silvery head and tottering limbs might have begotten pity even in the most savage beast of the forest, and whose services to the country should have procured the good will of all, stood exposed to the fire of a whole battalion with the flag of peace extended, begging for mercy, and making the most solemn asseverations of his peaceable intentions, and that he wished no war. Even after he had fallen on his knees, he held the flag extended and begged for mercy, but inhumanity stopped not here—he was again fired at, and after they had murdered him, the ornaments were torn from his ears."

Abandoned,
ON the night of the 16th inst. my negro man JOHN, or JOHN ALLEN, (as he calls himself)—he is well known, having lived with me for several years, and has travelled a good deal with me.
He is a very plausible fellow, about 36 years of age, slender made, and about 5 feet 5 inches high, rather of a yellow complexion, but the complete negro mouth and nose—has a small scar on one of his cheeks—has lately had a sore on his right leg, directly on the shin bone, which leg has the appearance of being much scored at a former period by disease or the small pox. His hat was made and stamped by Rogers of Baltimore.
A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or county of Alexandria, 20 if in the county of Washington or Fairfax, 50 if in Baltimore or state of Maryland, and 100 if in Philadelphia or the state of Pennsylvania, and in like proportion if at any other places, with all reasonable charges for bringing him here and securing him in jail.
May 18 JAMES SANDERSON.

Fifty Dollars Reward
WILL be given for the apprehension of negro JOHN, about 19 or 20 years of age, light complexion, and about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high—his clothing not recollected, but was very diffi-ferent. He was one of a party who broke the jail of this place on the night of the 16th inst. and made his escape. The above reward will be given for his apprehension and for lodging him in any jail so that I get him again. All information to be left with Mr. Godley, at Mr. Legg's tavern, of this place, or to Mr. George Miller, sen. of Washington City.

Valuable Mill for Sale.

PERMANENT to last will and testament of Joseph Dean, deceased, will be exposed to sale, on Tuesday, the 16th June next, at 12 o'clock, on the premises—that known by the name of "BUCKLAND MILL," situated in the village of Buckland, Prince William County, Virginia, 33 miles from Alexandria, from whence there is a good turnpike road. The mill house is large and commodious, the whole in good repair, with a fine machinery complete. There are three pair of burrs, and two water-wheels 18 feet high, and it is capable of manufacturing 40 bbls. of flour daily. The stream is never failing and affords sufficient water for other water works. To the mill there is attached about 100 acres of land, and near the mill is a comfortable dwelling house, and garden. This property is situated in one of the best wheat neighborhoods in Virginia—the title is clear of any incumbrance. One-fourth of the purchase money will be required in cash; the remainder in accommodating payments, which will be made known on the day of sale. The premises will be shown by Mr. Wm. Brooks, residing at Buckland.

HUGH SMITH,
Executor of Joseph Dean, dec'd.
May 15

For Sale.

That very valuable FARM whereon I now reside, containing 628 acres, lying in the county of Fauquier, and State at Va. near the county road leading from Fauquier Court House to Dumfries, about ten miles from the former and twenty from the latter; about thirty from Falmouth, thirty-five from Alexandria, and six from the Backland Mills, from whence there is a paved road to Alexandria. Any person wishing to visit their money in this kind of property, will find it their interest to call and view this property. There is a large supply of timber conveniently situated, lying at each end of the Farm. There is now a small meadow on it, which produces very abundant crops of grass; there is fifty acres more adjoining, which is equally adapted to the growth of Timothy; the clover has been sown here with great success, without the aid of plaster, which has never been applied, but from experience it is ascertained that plaster acts with as much power here as in any other part of the state. This property is well situated to divide, and may be divided to suit purchasers, which would make two farms of 314 acres each, as it may be so divided by running a line from North to South, as to give each lot a full supply of timber; the improvements of one lot are, a comfortable dwelling house with five rooms and a large closet, a portion on one side and a porch on the other, two brick and one stone chimneys, a kitchen and smoke house, with other necessary out houses; a well of excellent water in the yard; also, a young apple orchard, containing 110 trees of choice fruit of different kinds. The other lot has a house with four rooms and a passage, which with a trifling expense may be made very comfortable; a well of excellent water in the yard, and an extensive apple orchard of bearing trees, forward and latter fruit of various kinds. I consider this orchard worth $300 per year. It is deemed unnecessary to say more, as it is presumed, that persons wishing to purchase, will view the premises and judge for themselves. If this property is not disposed of at private sale previous to the 30th day of May next, which would be preferred, it will on that day be exposed to public sale—the sale to commence at 11 o'clock, if fair; if not, the next fair day—terms made known on the day of sale, which will be easy. Any persons wishing to view this property, can be shown it by the subscriber, living on it. After the sale of the above property, will be offered to the highest bidder, all my stock of cattle, sheep, and hogs; household and kitchen furniture, all of excellent quality; plantation utensils, &c. &c.

ROSE HOE,

350 Acres of Land for sale.
The subscriber wishes to sell 350 acres of LAND in the upper part of Prince William County, Va. lying immediately on the road leading from Haymarket to Leesburg, and about 5 miles from Aldie Mills, from which latter place there is a turnpike road to Alexandria, distant 33 miles. As there is a saw mill erecting on an adjoining farm the timber may be converted into plank with convenience. This land is well watered, and none more susceptible of improvement; better adapted to the use of clover and plaster. Persons desirous of purchasing would do well to call and see it, as a great bargain may be had. For terms apply to the subscriber living on the premises.

LEE'S MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges.

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mild est purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebra or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitaria or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenuis or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fecid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and looseness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of

Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than any number of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prevent an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in averting desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to clear off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness of the stomach and severe head-ache—ought to be taken by all persons at change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose is such that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

So celebrated among the fashions throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, from corrosive and repellent ment, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, &c. worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.
